ROLL OF HONOR FOR THE WEEK.

JOHN LOCKMAN.
W. T. EICKHOLZ, per L.
TRAUTWEIN.
OTTO WAGENER.

A PICNIC.

There will be a school picnic at the Bunyes school house July 11th, commencing at 2 o'clock. Prof.
Fertsch's school closes on July 9th.

It would be the proper thing for Maximo Martinez, the Wilson county fiend, who murdered a young girl and her father and mother, to apply for a change of venue to Lavaca county, claiming prejudice in Wilson county. We could then have a Lavaca county jury give him a coat of whitewash and turn him loose and give the Floresville people a taste of their own medicine. Turn about is fair play. We believe that if the devil were tried in Floresville he would be honorably acquitted and the Wilson county "chumps" would declare him to be a mighty nice man and the victim of persecution.

The fig crop this year is immense.

Wm. Hahnke of Schulenburg, is in town.

The street committee has had Henry Neimeyer mow down all the weeds in the streets.

Mrs. E. J. Wangemann has been quite ill for the past two weeks.

Miss Nettie Fitzgerald took the train here Monday for Waco to attend the Teachers' Association.

If you want to buy a buggy and harness do not fail to give me a call.

D. G. HELMERS.

The Misses Yeager of Flatonia, were the guests of Miss Norma Flato here this week.

"Our Leader" single buggy and harness for $50.00 at D. G. Hel-mer's.

A beautiful line of silk parasols at O. H. Deutsch's.

At a negro dance at Flatonia Saturday night, John Sutton, a negro, who worked in the oil mill here last season, was badly carved up and in turn succeeded in disemboweling his assailant, a negro named Williams.

Otto Koehler came over from Witting Sunday. He had shaved off his moustache and wore a broad brimmed white hat, and as he came up the streets his resemblance to John Othold was so striking as to cause quite a craning of necks.

Miss Ida Lueke of Kinkler, was here this week visiting Mrs. O. T.
Dittmar. Mrs. Dittmar is rapidly recovering from her late severe illness.

Otto Wagener from out on the river was in Saturday to pay his paper up to 1898.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ikleheart of Cameron, passed through here Saturday on their way to Dilworth on a visit to Dr. Minton and family.
The doctor's other daughter, Miss Bertie, who was formerly the Gazette's Dilworth correspondent, married Prof. Sharpe of Troy, Texas, and is now residing there with her husband, who is the principal of the Troy public schools.

Charlie Alstott, the well known mail clerk, was drowned at Waco Sunday. With three companions he had gone bathing and got beyond his depth. Not being able to swim he quickly sank and was drowned. For years he passed through Shiner on his daily run to and from Waco, and had many friends here. He was running as mail clerk on the Cotton Belt. He was not married but was engaged to be to a beautiful young lady.

The Gonzales Drag Net complains that the negroes over there have a habit of monopolizing the sidewalks and pushing white ladies off into the street. This is a bad state of affairs indeed, and the Drag Net seems to think some heroic means should be taken to put a stop to such practices. If negroes act so it is because they have white backing. Some white men will keep a lot of negroes around them in order to control their votes in elections, and will encourage them in many ways. If the negroes become obstreperous it is the fault of the white men who protect them.

The GAZETTE goes henceforth to Erwin Wendtland at the Metropolitan college at Dallas.

Commissioner Meyer and Judge Paulus continue to bombard each other with red-hot shot. The controversy threatens to reach a stage where there will be no more "pig swapping."

A. C. McKeen of Youkum, was here Monday on business relating to the Order of Red Men. The officers of the lodge here are as follows: Sachem, F. T. Mitchell; Senior Sagamore, Geo. Seydler;
